

The Institute For Congregational Studies

Members of the Institute, have taken on projects of curriculum development for lay ministry, clergy credentialing, and other important work at the request of divisions and leadership groups of the National Association.

For more information about the institute, please contact, Rev. Dr. Steven Peay.