ALASKA NATIVE HERITAGE CENTER – 1:00p.m. – 3:00p.m.

Sunday, June 27, 2010 only

Depart from Hilton Anchorage Hotel via deluxe exclusive motorcoach for the short 15-minute transfer to the Alaska Native Heritage Center. Alaska is a land of many Native peoples. Responding to the need for a community gathering place, the Center's mission is to provide a gathering place to perpetuate, celebrate and share Alaska Native traditions through exhibits and educational programs for the cultural enrichment of all. Visitors to the Center will meet Native Tradition Bearers, artists and performers as they tour five historic village exhibits each built around a lake to depict the history and traditions of the five Native peoples and regions, which are from all across the state. The Inupiaq / St. Lawrence Island Yup'ik Natives are from the northernmost arctic regions of the state, the Athabaskan from south-central Alaska, the Yup'ik & Cup'ik from the southwestern region, the Aleut / Alutiiq from the Aleutian Chain & Kodiak Island areas, and the final village exhibit represents the Eyak / Tlingit / Haida / Tsimshian Natives from southeastern Alaska. The Welcome House consists of a combination of exhibits, information, programs and arts and crafts, all uniquely demonstrating how Alaska Natives live today.

Price: $65.00 per person Minimum number of participants required to operate this tour.
