

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

Julie Robie, NACCC Missions Administrator

The new Missions Administrator position has been filled. The position was offered and Julie Robie of Kingston, NH and FCC in Kingston, NH has accepted the position and will start on February 4, 2019. Her position will be part time and she will not be working out of the Oak Creek office, but working remotely from her home.

Julie's love for Jesus, her passion for mission work, and administrative experience makes her the perfect fit for this position.

Julie has loved Jesus and serving His people since she was a little girl. Raised up in a Baptist Church in Amesbury, MA, her mother and grandmother led the way to her spiritual growth as a Christian, a heritage for which she will always be grateful.

Julie, along with her husband Rev. Jeff Robie, has led mission service opportunities within the community of Kingston, NH and two short term mission trips for Hurricane Katrina relief to Mississippi. They have also led two trips to Word Alive (Ghana and Ivory Coast) where they taught English, spoke at worship services and worked on the orphanage. Julie and Jeff were members of a team which traveled to Mission Mazahua in Mexico with the Massachusetts Association of Congregational Christian Churches and helped lead three Christian healing retreats in the countries of Rwanda, Burundi and Kenya along with one healing retreat with South Sudanese Students in Minnesota with the Pilgrim Center for Reconciliation. Julie has also visited several NACCC Missions within the United States while serving on the Missionary Society (renamed Mission and Outreach Ministry Council). She worked for 13 years as Minister of Administration for the First Congregational Church of Kingston, NH.

Julie and Jeff have been married for almost 40 years and live in Kingston, N.H. They have two adult children.

At heart, Julie is a farm girl. She has a small farm with two mini horses, 4 goats, chickens and ducks. Six indoor cats round out her menagerie.

Julie will be replacing Linda Miller, who has been in this role with the NACCC for over 10 years. Linda will be retiring on March 1, 2019.
