

Treasures: A Quiet Day Retreat

Do we really pursue the treasures that we claim to be most important to us? The Rev. Dan Vellinga, Senior Minister of the First Congregational Church of Marshalltown, IA, will lead a Quiet Day Retreat on the grounds of the Jesuit Retreat House in Parma, OH, on Friday, June 21, 2019, from 8:30 am-3:30 pm, that will give us time to reflect on what we find valuable in life in comparison to the Lord's values, noting Jesus' statement in Matthew 6:19-21. Participants will also consider how our resources of time and money align with our values. The Jesuit Retreat House (JRH) is located at: 5629 State Road, in Parma, OH 44134, on over 50 wooded acres.

The JRH has been more than an institution in the Cleveland area. Since it opened in 1898, it has been serving people of the Diocese of Cleveland, providing leaders and programs to meet the needs of the times. JRH continues to share the mission of the Society of Jesus, particularly its strong reliance on the tried and true approach of St. Ignatius' Spiritual Exercises. As it begins its second century, faithful to the original vision of Fr. Van Rossum, the JRH continues to provide a wide variety of retreat programs that foster personal and spiritual growth in men and women. The Jesuit philosophy of "Finding God in All Things" continues to permeate the work of the Jesuit Retreat House and its holy ground as we begin a new century of service at the dawn of a new millennium. Faithful to its past, JRH faces the challenges of the future with confidence that the Lord will continue to bless its ministry of the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius.
