

Do you feel the call from God to lead others in walking in the Congregational Way?

Congregational Foundation for Theological Studies (CFTS) is here to assist you in your journey!

CFTS can help:

Recent graduate, Jacob Poindexter

Charles Packer congratulates recent graduates Joel Boyd and Joy Matos.

- Award significant grants and scholarships during your time in a seminary accredited through the Association of Theological Schools
- Provide education in the history of Congregationalism and the unique governance of our churches at the one-week Boston Seminar in Congregational History and Polity
- Offer opportunities to attend seminars, workshops, annual meetings, conferences, and symposia
- Give guidance for preparation in serving churches of the Congregational Way
- Share the wisdom of experienced ministers through the Pilgrim Partner program
- Support your early ministry years by administering post-graduate grants

To find out more about how to proceed into your call, please contact:
