

Congregational
Library & Archives
History Matters

Plymouth's Pilgrims: Their Church, Their World, and Ours

A Free Curriculum Series

From the Congregational Library & Archives

The 400th anniversary of the Pilgrims' arrival in Plymouth is a unique opportunity for people of faith to explore an event that is deeply embedded in American lore and foundational to the history of the Congregational Churches. The Congregational Library & Archives invites church groups to join a fresh conversation about an old story, one that that is both relevant—and sharply challenging—to us today.

Our four-part curriculum provides:

- Clear and focused historical information, provided by leading scholars of American puritanism
- Personal stories of men and women who made the voyage
- A historically responsible treatment of the Native American story
- Thoughtful, probing questions about the meaning of history for people today
- Free downloadable resources for further study and tools for discussion

The curriculum will be available for downloading in September 2019, from our website (www.congregationallibrary.org). Additional resources—historical documents, videos, and tips for further study—will be added over 2020.

For more information contact:
The Congregational Library & Archives
14 Beacon Street, Suite 200
Boston, MA 02108
(617) 523-0470