

Answers to 2020 April Questions

Questions from Julie Robie, Missions Administrator

1. How can NACCC missionaries pray for you or your church?
 2. If your church has been on a mission trip, have promises been kept? If not, what can be done to fix that?
 3. What can your church do to maintain and strengthen mission relationships?

Curt Schmidt of Congregational Church of Bound Brook, NJ

1. They can pray that our Congregation in New Jersey continues to be aware of the many needs of our Missions, and problems that our brothers and sisters face in these remarkable times as well as in "normal" times.
2. We have not held a mission trip in some time! The average of our congregation is well into the 70's, so we are presently unable to offer the kind of help required for a mission trip.
3. The best we can do at this time is offer our prayers, and continue as much financial aid as we can muster. We do try to keep up-to-date with the missions that we do support by reading and posting their newsletters and thank you cards.

Jerry Zwaga of Community CCC, Citrus Springs, FL

1. Pray to guide us as we try to inform and educate our members on missions.
2. We have not participated in any mission trips
3. Try to think beyond our local community. Needs statewide, nationally and worldwide.

Rebecca Pniewski, Rockwood FCC, Rockwood, MI

1. Pray that God grow the seeds we are planting in our community.
2. The only missions we have engaged in are with Habitat for Humanity here in the US and we continue to support them mostly by providing labor hours to build homes.
3. First and foremost, we can pray for them. Secondly, we can continue to encourage our members and friends to participate in the opportunities provided for physical labor and monetary donations.
