I. EMPLOYMENT POLICIES AND PRACTICES

A. STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

This Personnel Manual is to describe and define the policies and procedures of the UNIVERSITY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH (referred to herein as "Employer"). Employees should familiarize themselves with the Manual, as it will provide answers to some questions they may have about their employment. Nothing in this Manual or in any other written or unwritten policies and practices of Employer creates an express or implied contract, promise or representation between Employer and any employee.

The Employer's policies generally will be applied consistently. However, the Employer reserves the right to deviate from normal policy in certain situations. Since every employment situation cannot be anticipated, this Manual provides a general overview only.

From time to time, changes in the Manual may become necessary. Therefore, the Employer reserves the right to amend, supplement or rescind any provisions of this Manual as necessary.

The Manual applies to all staff, whether full-time, part-time, exempt or nonexempt, except where otherwise stated. This Manual does not apply to ordained ministers called by vote of the congregation.

Employment "at-will" means that an employee or the Employer may terminate the employment relationship at any time for any reason, with or without notice. Your employment with the church is "at-will."

This Manual supersedes all previous employment policies, whether written or oral, expressed or implied. If any provisions of this Manual are found to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions will remain in full force and effect.

Any questions or comments about this Manual or a need for additional information should be directed to the Senior Minister. Comments and suggestions are genuinely encouraged.

UNIVERSITY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH is committed to treating all employees with respect and dignity.

B. EMPLOYER MISSION AND HISTORY

The Covenant of University Congregational Church--In the love of truth, and in the name and spirit of Jesus Christ, we join with one another to worship and to live so that peace, justice and brotherhood may prevail in the world.

The clergy and staff of University Congregational Church work to make this covenant a daily reality.

C. EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Employer affirms its commitment to equal employment opportunity for all individuals. Decisions about recruiting, hiring, training, promotions, compensation, benefits, and all similar employment decisions will be made in compliance with all federal, state and local laws and without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability or any other classification protected by law. Any discrimination in the workplace based upon any protected classification is illegal and against policy.

Employees who have questions about discrimination in the workplace, or who believe this policy has been violated, should report their concerns immediately to the Senior Minister. Retaliation against individuals who make a claim of discrimination or participate in the investigation of such a claim is prohibited by this policy and will not be tolerated.

D. SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Sexual harassment is prohibited and will not be tolerated. This policy applies to sexual harassment by members of the same gender as well as opposite genders as well as adult harassment of children. Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitutes sexual harassment when:

- submission to the conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment;
- submission to or rejection of the conduct is used as a factor in employment decisions affecting an individual; or
- the conduct unreasonably interferes with an individual's employment or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive employment environment.

Some examples of conduct which may constitute sexual harassment, depending on the circumstances, include but are not limited to, the following:

- repeated and unwelcome suggestions regarding, or invitations to, social engagements or social events; or
- any indication, expressed or implied, that any aspect of employment conditions, depends or may depend on the granting of sexual favors or on a willingness to accept or tolerate conduct or communication of a sexual nature; or
- unwelcome or coerced physical proximity or physical contact which is of a sexual nature or sexually motivated; or
- the deliberate use of offensive or demeaning terms which have a sexual connotation; or
- inappropriate remarks of a sexual nature.

Any employee who believes he or she has been sexually harassed by another employee, a supervisor, or any other person encountered in the course of employment should report that conduct immediately to the Senior Minister. If the report or complaint involves the Senior Minister, or if the Senior Minister is unavailable, the employee should immediately report it to the Moderator of the congregation.

Every complaint or report of sexual harassment will be promptly investigated. Although investigations will be conducted with sensitivity to confidentiality issues, investigative information will be communicated as appropriate to those with a need to know. If the investigation indicates that a violation of this policy may have occurred, timely and appropriate action will be taken.

Retaliation or reprisal against employees who report sexual harassment claims is prohibited and will not be tolerated. Any violation of this policy will be treated as a serious matter and will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

E. HARASSMENT

The Employer prohibits conduct that shows hostility or an aversion toward an individual because of his or her race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, sexual orientation or any other classification protected by law, and that:

- has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment; or
- has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance; or
- otherwise adversely affects an individual's employment opportunities.

Some examples of conduct which may constitute harassment, depending on the circumstances, include but are not limited to, the following:

- epithets or slurs; or
- threatening or intimidating acts; or
- written or graphic material; or

- written, oral or physical acts that purport to be jokes or pranks.

Any employee who believes he or she has been harassed by another employee, a supervisor, an agent of Employer, or any other person who the employee encounters in the course of employment should report that conduct immediately to the Senior Minister. If the report or complaint involves the Senior Minister, or if the Senior Minister is unavailable, the employee should immediately report it to the Moderator of the congregation.

Every complaint or report of harassment will be promptly investigated. If the investigation indicates that an act of harassment has occurred, timely and appropriate action will be taken. Retaliation or reprisal against employees who report harassment claims is prohibited and will not be tolerated. Any violation of this policy will be treated as a serious matter and will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

F. HARASSMENT TRAINING

Employer will periodically provide harassment training in compliance with current law.

G. RESOLUTION OF EMPLOYEE COMPLAINTS

Effective communication is essential for productive working relationships. To that end, employees are encouraged to discuss any concerns about work or suggestions for improving operations in the following manner:

The employee should present any complaint or grievance to the supervisor and together discuss the problem, applicable rules or policies, and possible resolution.

If discussion with the supervisor does not resolve the matter to the employee's satisfaction, the employee should submit the complaint or grievance in writing to the Senior Minister or Moderator of the congregation who shall gather the evidence necessary to complete an investigation. The Senior Minister or Moderator may interview the employee, involve the personnel committee, or appoint an ad hoc committee to advise him/her. The Senior Minister or Moderator of the congregation shall then recommend a resolution of the problem to the supervisor and employee.

If the Senior Minister's or Moderator's recommendation does not resolve the matter to the employee's satisfaction, the employee may then seek a review by the Council. The resolution recommended by the Council will be binding upon the congregation and employee.

H. INTERNET POLICY

Employer provides Internet access (including e-mail) to its staff members to assist and facilitate business communications and work-related research. These services are for legitimate business use only in the course of assigned duties. All materials, information and software created, transmitted, downloaded or stored on the Employer's computer system are the property of the Employer and may be accessed only by authorized personnel.

Inappropriate Internet use includes, but is not limited to:

- transmitting obscene, harassing, offensive or unprofessional messages; or
- accessing, displaying, downloading, or distributing any offensive or inappropriate messages including those containing racial slurs, sexual connotations or offensive comments about race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability or any other classification protected by law; or
- transmitting any of the Employer's confidential or proprietary information, including member/friend data or other materials covered by the Employer's confidentiality policy.

Employer reserves the right to monitor employee use of the e-mail system or the Internet at any time. Employees should not consider their Internet usage or e-mail communications to be private. Personal passwords are not an assurance of confidentiality, and the Internet itself is not secure.

Any software or other material downloaded into Employer's computers may be used only in ways consistent with the licenses and copyrights of the vendors, authors or owners of the material. Prior written authorization from the Senior Minister is required before introducing any software into Employer's computer system.

Only authorized staff members may communicate on the Internet on behalf of Employer. Employees may not express opinions or personal views that could be misconstrued as being those of Employer. Employees may not state their church affiliation on the Internet unless required as part of their assigned duties. Any violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action.

I. PROFESSIONAL BEHAVIOR

Employees should maintain a professional attitude and appearance that is appropriate to their position and the Employer. Personal mail and non-essential telephone calls at work are discouraged.

J. MEDIA INQUIRIES

All requests for information about the Employer from newspapers, television and radio media should be directed to the Senior Minister. An appropriate response to a media inquiry would be, "May I contact the appropriate person and have that individual get back to you?"

K. CONFIDENTIALITY

Employees may have access to confidential information about the Employer, including but not limited to information about members, friends or other staff members. Such information must remain confidential and may not be released, removed from the Employer's premises, copied, transmitted or in any other way used for any purpose by employees outside the scope of their employment. All requests for information concerning past or present employees received from organizations or individuals should be directed to the Senior Minister.

L. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Employees are expected to avoid conflicts of interest, defined as any situation where an employee may attain personal gain or which may serve as a detriment to the Employer, either monetarily or to its public image, because of the use of information or personal contact which is not generally available except through employment with the Employer.

Employees shall not engage in any business or transaction, and shall not have a financial or other personal interest which is incompatible with their employment duties or which would impair their judgment or actions in the performance of their duties for the Employer. Employees who have questions about whether an activity violates this policy should discuss the matter with the Senior Minister.

No employee who is also a church member may be nominated, elected to serve, or serve as Moderator, Clerk, Treasurer, Member-at-Large of the Council, president of any board, or serve in any other position that the Moderator determines would create or suggest a conflict of interest.

M. OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT

Employees shall not engage in any collateral employment or business activity that is incompatible or in conflict with their duties, functions or responsibilities as an employee. Activities that may constitute a conflict include use of the Employer's time, facilities, equipment or supplies, or the use of the title, prestige or influence of the congregation for private gain or advantage.

An employee shall not engage in any outside activity which, by its nature, hours or physical demands, would impair the employee's performance of Employer duties; reflect discredit on the Employer; or tend to increase Employer's payments for sick leave, worker's compensation benefits or short-term or long-term disability benefits. Collateral employment should not result in outside telephone calls while on duty for the congregation.

N. EMPLOYMENT OF RELATIVES

Other members of an employee's family may be considered for employment; however, relatives may not supervise one another. "Relative" means a spouse, domestic partner, parent, sibling, child, grandparent, or grandchild.

O. CHILDREN AT WORK

While the Employer is sensitive to the needs of working parents and grandparents, caring for children in the workplace on a regular basis as a substitute for regular day care is not permitted. Caring for children or grandchildren in the workplace on an emergency basis, however, is allowable on an infrequent basis of short duration, providing it is essential for the employee to be at work. Parents and grandparents are solely responsible for the actions of their children on church property.

P. PERSONNEL RECORD

It is very important that employees keep up-to-date all the information provided to the Employer at the time of hire. This information is essential for many purposes, including benefit administration, mailing information to the employee's home, and contacting friends or family in case of emergency. The Senior Minister should be promptly notified of any changes in:

- Address, telephone number, and email address;
- Marital status (including legal separation);
- Legal change in employee's name;
- Dependents;
- Changes in beneficiaries;
- Person to notify in case of emergency; and
- Any relevant changes in licensing or education.

Q. EMPLOYMENT AUTHORIZATION

Federal law requires that prospective employees must show proof of eligibility to work in the United States in the position for which they are applying. When applicable, employees must usually provide an original document or documents to the employee's supervisor that establish identity and employment eligibility from the date employment begins.

R. PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Full-time employees, with approval of their supervisor or the Senior Minister, may participate in study leave or professional growth conferences or seminars. If the Employer is unable to cover expenses, employee may request paid time off to attend a conference at their own expense. If the Employer pays for attendance at any event, full participation is expected. These events are primarily for the purpose of increasing employees' effectiveness in their current positions.

S. PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

In general, employees will receive a written performance evaluation once each year that will be maintained in the Employee's permanent personnel file. Factors considered in assessing performance include but are not limited to quality and quantity of work; dependability; attendance and punctuality; effective interpersonal relationships with the congregation, and personal conduct.

Employees will identify goals and objectives in consultation with Boards, the Senior Minister, and the Council in advance so that their work may be evaluated on the basis of clear criteria they have helped to develop.

Performance evaluations will be one factor in the annual consideration of any salary adjustment.

II. WAGE AND HOUR ADMINISTRATION

A. EMPLOYMENT CLASSIFICATIONS

For purposes of determining the applicability of various policies, practices, and benefits, employees are classified by the nature of the position to which they are assigned and by their regular work schedule.

Regular full-time employees are regularly scheduled to work not less than 32 hours per week. Employees scheduled to work less than 32 hours per week will be considered part-time employees.

Employees who are subject to state or federal minimum wage and overtime laws are referred to as “non-exempt” employees. Those in administrative, management, or supervisory positions who are not subject to such regulation are referred to as “exempt” employees.

B. HOURS OF WORK

Normal office hours are Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Some employees may be scheduled for work on Sunday mornings. Individual work schedules may change from time to time. Attendance at meetings at the request of the employee's supervisor will be considered time worked. Employees are expected to attend any staff retreats or off-site events to which are part of their employment.

C. TIMEKEEPING AND OVERTIME

Non-exempt employees must submit a written and signed record of their time worked at the end of each day. Any scheduled hours not worked or time worked in excess of their regular schedule must be noted. Where required by applicable law, overtime will be paid to non-exempt employees at the rate of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of 40 in any one work week. Holiday, vacation and sick leave is not counted for purposes of overtime compensation. Employees should not work overtime without authorization in advance.

D. PAY AND PAYROLL DEDUCTIONS

Pay adjustments generally will be considered for all employees once a year and any adjustments will normally begin at the beginning of the fiscal year. There is no guarantee of an annual pay adjustment.

Pay is usually based upon such factors as individual performance, job responsibilities and other appropriate factors. Regular full time employees are paid bi-weekly; all others are paid monthly.

Deductions made from employees' wages are reflected on the stubs of their paychecks. Federal law requires deductions from pay for income tax, Social Security and Medicare. Other deductions may include state and/or local taxes or wage garnishments. Some deductions are optional and are made only if the employee has authorized their deduction.

Employees are responsible for promptly notifying the Senior Minister of any changes to or errors in their deductions. Any necessary adjustments usually are made and reflected in the employee's next paycheck.

III. EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

The benefits outlined in this Manual represent significant additional compensation to eligible employees. Outlined below is a brief summary of the types of employee benefits currently available through Employer. This summary is not intended to and does not create an express or implied contract, promise or representation between Employer and the employee. These benefits are subject to change at any time in the discretion of Employer. In the event of any discrepancy between the benefits outlined below and the plan itself, the plan will govern. Any questions about employee benefits should be directed to the Senior Minister.

A. INSURANCE PROGRAMS

1. Health Insurance Benefits

Regular full time employees may enroll in the health insurance plan provided by the Employer unless they have health insurance through a family member or collateral employment. Further information concerning the plan and any alternative health related benefits may be obtained from the Senior Minister.

2. Dental, Term Life, Short-Term and Long-Term Disability Insurance

Regular full time employees may enroll in the dental insurance, term life insurance, short-term and long-term disability insurance provided by the Employer. Further information concerning these policies is available from the Senior Minister.

3. Workers' Compensation Insurance

Employer carries workers' compensation insurance that pays for certain medical expenses and provides partial income protection in the event of illness or injury arising out of or in the course of employment.

4. Flexible Spending Account

Regular full time employees may enroll in a Flexible Spending Account offered by the Employer. Further information concerning this account is available from the Senior Minister.

All on-the-job injuries or illnesses, regardless of severity, should be reported immediately to the employee's immediate supervisor or to the Senior Minister. Employees may be required to provide a physician's statement in order to receive worker's compensation benefits, or to return to work.

B. RETIREMENT BENEFITS

The Employer maintains a defined contribution qualified retirement plan 403(b)(7) to assist full-time employees to accumulate tax-deferred savings for retirement. Under the plan, the Employer contributes a percentage of the employee's wages.

C. VACATION

The Employer grants paid vacation to regular full-time employees at their regular rate of pay as follows:

- Provides one week the first year of employment;
- Provides two weeks the second year of employment;
- Provides three weeks annually the third year of employment and beyond;
- Allows vacation days to accrue from the anniversary date of employment to a maximum of six weeks.

Vacation time must be requested in advance and can only be taken with the approval of the employee's supervisor. In the event of conflicting vacation requests, vacation generally will be granted in accordance with length of service and consistent with workload requirements. Summertime vacations generally are encouraged.

Employees who resign with at least two weeks' notice may receive payment for the accrued vacation days that have not been used. Employees who resign without two weeks notice or who are terminated will not receive payment for accrued vacation.

D. HOLIDAYS

The following paid holidays are observed each year:

- New Year's Day
- Martin Luther King Day
- Memorial Day
- Fourth of July
- Labor Day
- Thanksgiving Day
- Day after Thanksgiving Day
- Christmas Day

If an observed holiday falls on a Saturday, the preceding Friday generally will be observed as the holiday. If an observed holiday falls on a Sunday, the following Monday generally will be observed as the holiday. If employees are required to work on an observed holiday, they generally will be granted another day off.

E. LEAVES OF ABSENCE

1. General provisions

The policies in this section describe various types of paid and unpaid leaves of absence provided by the Employer. Leaves must be requested in advance in writing and require the approval of the employee's immediate supervisor. The exact nature of the leave and its anticipated length must be included in the written request. Employees are expected to return to work upon the expiration of the leave as granted. If prevented from returning as expected, the employee must immediately notify his or her supervisor.

2. Sick leave with pay

All full-time employees accrue one day of paid sick leave for every month worked, up to a maximum of twelve days per calendar year. One year's worth (12 days) of sick time may be carried forward into the following year, for a total of twelve (24) days maximum.

Sick leave is to be used only in the event the employee is unable to work due to the employee's own illness, injury or other medical condition. Sick leave may be used as part of medical leave or to care for a sick child. Sick leave should be used for routine dental or medical appointments.

Employees must notify their supervisor before they are scheduled to be at work if they are ill and unable to come to work. Employees may be required to provide a physician's statement regarding their medical condition, including why the employee was not able to work. The Employer reserves the right to request employees who are repeatedly absent for illness or injury be examined by a physician chosen by the Employer, and at the expense of the Employer.

3. Medical leave without pay

Unpaid medical leave may be granted in instances where an employee's medical condition requires an absence from work for more time than the amount of available sick leave. This leave requires the approval of the employee's supervisor and the Senior Minister. Sufficient evidence of such a medical condition is required for a medical leave. Such evidence may include a request or requirement for authorization to speak with the employee's treating physician. The maximum unpaid medical leave time that may be granted is three months or until a physician releases the employee to return to work, whichever is shorter. Employer also reserves the right to request a second opinion from a physician chosen by the Employer on any medical leave of absence.

4. Personal leave without pay

Employees who have been employed full-time for at least one year may be given unpaid personal leave of five days per year, which must be approved in advance by the Senior Minister.

5. Military leave without pay

Employees who are members of the uniformed services of the United States (including the National Guard or other reserve unit) will be granted unpaid leaves of absence in accordance with state or federal law to perform military duties on a voluntary or involuntary basis. Requests for military leave of absence must be made in writing and should include verification of the duty call from military authority, the date the leave is to commence and the expected date of return.

Employees may choose to use any accumulated vacation time for all or part of the period of military service. Leaves of absence in excess of any available vacation time will be without pay. In accordance with applicable law, eligible employees will be reinstated to the same job upon returning from an authorized military leave of absence.

6. Funeral or bereavement leave with pay

Full-time employees may be eligible for a leave of absence for up to three days with pay for the death of spouse, domestic partner, parent, sibling, child, grandparent or grandchild. The number of paid days off will be determined by the Senior Minister based on the circumstances.

7. Jury duty leave with pay

Employees called for jury duty are paid their regular pay for up to twenty working days. Employees should return to work upon being excused from jury duty on any day.

8. Parental leave without pay

Full-time employees who become natural or adoptive parents may be eligible for a leave of absence of up to six weeks. The leave must begin within six weeks of the birth or adoption. Biological mothers may also be eligible for sick leave or medical leave without pay following the birth of a child. Such a leave may, in the discretion of the Senior Minister, run consecutively with unpaid parental leave.

F. VEHICLE USAGE AND REIMBURSEMENT

Employees using their own cars for church-related business may be paid mileage at the current rate per mile as established by Internal Revenue Service. Mileage will be reimbursed monthly upon request by the employee and approval by the Senior Minister. Trips must be authorized by the employee's supervisor. Employees must have a current and valid driver's license and proof of insurance. Employees may not take unauthorized passengers on such trips.

All tickets for parking and traffic violations are the responsibility of the employee. The employee must pay all fines promptly and will not be reimbursed by Employer.

IV. OTHER EMPLOYER POLICIES

A. ATTENDANCE AND PUNCTUALITY

Each employee is expected to be prompt and regular in his or her attendance at work. Personal appointments should be scheduled before or after work hours, if possible. All scheduled absences must be approved in advance by the supervisor. Employees who are unable to report to work at their scheduled time must call their supervisor as soon as possible to report the absence and the expected time of return to work. Employees must call in each day they are absent unless otherwise authorized by their supervisor.

Any employee who fails to report to work without notice for three or more consecutive days will be considered to have voluntarily terminated employment, effective immediately.

B. WORK AND DISCIPLINARY GUIDELINES

Certain guidelines must be observed by all employees to protect the integrity of the Employer. Violations may result in disciplinary measures including oral warnings, written warnings or termination.

Engaging in any of the following examples of unacceptable conduct may result in disciplinary actions. This list is intended to be representative of the types of activities that may result in disciplinary action. It is not intended to be comprehensive and does not alter the employment at will relationship between the employee and the employer.

- Failure to perform work in a manner acceptable to Employer.
- Absenteeism or tardiness.
- Leaving work without permission.
- Failure to report absences as required.
- Sexual harassment or other unlawful harassment described in this Manual.
- The use, possession or sale, or being under the influence of alcohol or controlled substances (other than those used for bona fide medical purposes) while working (including meals and other breaks).
- Unauthorized possession of weapons.
- Disclosure of confidential information.
- Smoking in the church building.
- Failure to report-on-the job injuries.
- Failure to accurately complete or permitting another person to complete the employee's timecard.
- Arrest and conviction for criminal offenses that are job related, including those that may affect the employee's ability to perform his or her job.

- Theft or dishonesty.
- Falsifying records or information (or misuse or unauthorized manipulation of any computer or electronic data processing equipment or system).
- Discourteous treatment of others.
- Taking Employer property without paying for it or without written permission.
- Reckless, careless or unauthorized use of Employer property, equipment or materials.
- Improper or profane language.
- Violation of any other Employer policy.

C. SEPARATION FROM EMPLOYMENT

Employees who resign are requested to give at least two weeks' written notice in order for the Employer to find a suitable replacement. Any employee who is absent for three consecutive days without notifying his or her supervisor, or who fails to report to work on or before the expiration of a leave, will be deemed to have resigned, consistent with applicable law.

D. SAFETY AND ACCIDENTS

The safety of employees, as well as members and visitors, is of paramount concern. All employees are expected to abide by accepted safety standards at all times. They should know the whereabouts of fire extinguishers and the first aid kit.

Any unsafe condition, equipment or practice observed by an employee should be reported immediately to the supervisor or Senior Minister. All on-the-job accidents or injuries to employees, no matter how minor, should be reported immediately to the Senior Minister. In the event of a fire or other emergency, the fire department and/or police should be called immediately, and all staff and members of the congregation should leave the premises.

E. WORKPLACE THREATS AND VIOLENCE

Threats, threatening behavior, or acts of violence against persons by anyone on church property will not be tolerated.

Anyone who verbally or physically threatens another, exhibits threatening behavior or engages in violent acts on church property may be removed and will remain off church property pending the outcome of an investigation. If the Employer determines that a violation of this policy has occurred, the Employer may take appropriate disciplinary action that may include, but is not limited to, suspension and/or termination of employment, and/or legal action as appropriate.

All employees shall inform the Senior Minister or their supervisor of any behavior which they have witnessed or experienced, which they regard as threatening or violent.

F. INSPECTION RIGHTS

Churches, like other organizations, are sometimes the victims of thieves. The church has on its premises storage facilities such as desks, file cabinets, closets and storage areas for the use of employees; however, the church can make no assurances that they will always be secure. The storage of any unauthorized alcohol, illegal drugs or drug-related paraphernalia is prohibited on church premises. Therefore, the Employer reserves the right to open and inspect any desk, file cabinet, storage closet or storage area at any time and without prior notice or consent. Employees may not use personal locks on church owned desks, cabinets, closets or storage areas.

PERSONNEL POLICY MANUAL ACKNOWLEDGMENT FORM

I, _____, hereby acknowledge that I have received a copy of the Personnel Policy Manual of UNIVERSITY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH. I understand that it is my responsibility to read the Manual and to comply with the policies, practices and rules of the Employer.

I specifically understand and agree that my employment is at will and for an unspecified period of time and that either the Employer or I may terminate the employment relationship at any time, with or without reason and with or without notice. I specifically understand and agree that this statement of policy contains all of the terms relating to termination of employment and that no representations may be made contrary to the foregoing, either express or implied. I understand that this statement of policy is subject to change.

I understand that this policy supersedes all previous policies, written or oral, express or implied. I also understand that this policy is neither a contract of employment nor a legal document, and that the Employer reserves discretion to add, change or rescind any policy, practice or rule at any time with or without notice.

I understand that my signature below indicates that I have read and understood the above statements and have received a copy of the Personnel Policy Manual, dated March 2008.
