

We can use your help! Devotional Writing information

We are eager to receive your devotional writings to help with this sharing of our faith during the seasons of Advent and Lent. After thinking about the theme of the booklet, pray about how you can best communicate some aspect of your faith life for the benefit of other Congregationalists. If you have an inspirational moment, consider writing for the booklet for next year while we are in the Lenten season this year.

Here are the details for upcoming devotional booklets:

Advent 2020: Theme: Walking as Mary Walked

Deadline August 15, 2020

Email your Advent entry to: NacccAdvent20@gmail.com

Lent 2021: Theme: Last Leg of the Journey

Deadline October 15, 2020

Email your Lent entry to: NacccLent21@gmail.com

The separate email addresses have been established to streamline our file-keeping for each booklet. Please use those addresses only for sending in your devotional writings. For questions or clarification, please contact Carol Taylor at jazzytay@gmail.com.

We have a few submissions from last year to be used in the future. Be assured we value every submission and strive for a diverse representation. We deeply appreciate the work of all our devotional writers!

We also want to convey that we honor the breadth of the deeply held theological viewpoints of our membership and our congregations. Throughout our booklets, you will find a wide range of expressions of faith; this booklet reflects the NACCC. As Congregationalists, we are spiritually strengthened, and we gain important insights through the sharing of our theology.

As you prepare to write, please frame a central thought which contributes to the theme of the booklet. Here are the things we need:

Title

Scripture verse(s)

The body of the text

A short prayer

Your name

Your church and its location

Your email (if you do not want it published, let us know)

Your home or cell phone (not for publication, but to contact you if we have a question)

A total word count of 300 to 400 words, including title, scripture, body, name, and church.

In order to preserve readable print size, submissions over 420 words will NOT be used. If you are even close to that word count, please trim before sending.

Your editors will proofread for grammar, spelling, punctuation, and will make minimal correction to flow or thought. We want your voice to come through these devotionals!

If you are interested in helping to put these booklets together: assembling into a document, and/or editing, please contact Carol jazzytay@gmail.com or Terry Bobzien terrybob@gmail.com. Or send a Facebook message. We very much miss our co-editor and friend, Bobbie Chapman.

Blessings to you all,
Carol and Terry
