

THE OFFICIAL CALL OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF CONGREGATIONAL CHRISTIAN CHURCHES 68th ANNUAL MEETING & CONFERENCE

All member churches of the National Association of Congregational Christian Churches are notified and invited, with great joy, to attend the 68th Annual Meeting and Conference of the NACCC, beginning Saturday, June 25, and closing Tuesday evening, June 28, 2022.

Rev. Dr. Don Olsen and Karen Malone, Co-Chairs of the Host Committee, which is comprised of University Congregational Church and Plymouth Congregational Church, both of Wichita, along with the leadership and staff of the NACCC, are planning our first ever hybrid meeting! This means that we will meet both in-person and virtually, to allow as many registrants as possible to attend.

As always, we will have interesting workshops, productive business meetings, and learn much from our missionaries. New features will include three Love Talks in place of the traditional Bible Lectures. The three speakers will all present on Saturday afternoon, and we are invited to greet them personally at a reception that evening. You can learn more about the speakers from their bios on their websites. Links can be found on the Annual Meeting page of our website: <https://www.naccc.org/2022amc> or in the registration brochure.

Another new experience this year is that the NAPF/HOPE youth will be with us all day Sunday! We are excited that the youth will be with us in worship, for workshops and fellowship that day.

This year's meeting and conference promises to be an exciting one. Not only will we be able to visit face-to-face, but the Drury Hotel provides us with morning and evening meals and houses an excellent restaurant. Personally, I am impressed with the professional hotel staff. And, the hotel itself is lovely. I know our spirits will be fed by its history and beauty, especially the mosaic mural that surrounds the main ballroom where the general sessions and some workshops will be held.

Please read the registration brochure carefully, including the information regarding the COVID pandemic, so that you may make an informed decision regarding your attendance, register on time, and offer any items for new business.

Please join us online or in-person for the 68th NACCC Annual Meeting and Conference. For more information go to <https://www.naccc.org/2022amc>.
