MODERATOR, Two-Year Term:

[Two-year Term to end 2024; vote was taken in 2022, first year of nomination]

Rev. Art Ritter, Meadowbrook Congregational Church, Novi, Michigan

Art is Minister Emeritus of Meadowbrook Congregational Church in Novi, MI, having retired in April 2021. He is a native of Stanton, MI, and grew up in the Traditional Congregational Church there. Art has a B.A. from Alma College and an M.A. from Central Michigan University and worked first as a Parks and Recreation Director in Bridgeport, MI. He graduated from the United Theological Seminary of the Twin Cities and the Congregational Foundation for Theological Studies in 1985. Ordained in that same year, Art has also served National Association churches in Toulon, IL; West Bloomfield, MI; and Salt Lake City, UT. He has been active within regional associations and the National Association, with terms on the Christian Education Commission, Nominating Committee, Division for Ministry, Congregational Church Development Division, Executive Committee, and the Annual Meeting and Conference Committee. Art and his spouse Laura have two adult daughters, Maren and Amelia.

VICE-MODERATOR, Two-Year Term:

[Two-year Term to end 2024; vote was taken in 2022, first year of nomination as Vice-Moderator, serves two years as Vice-Moderator; may be nominated for two years as Moderator]

Jodee Lord, Oakwood Heights Community Church, Staten Island, New York

Jodee Lord is a member of Oakwood Heights Community Church on Staten Island, N.Y. She is actively involved in life at Oakwood and its community, serving on the Board of Deacons, Church Council, Pastoral Search Committees, Board of Trustees, Church Choir, and food pantry volunteer. Jodee sits on the Board of Directors of S.I. Council of Churches as Chairperson of the Scholarship Committee and Congregational Support and Outreach. She has a deep dedication to the NACCC. She is currently serving as Vice Moderator and chair of the Board of Directors. Jodee serves on the Racial Justice Task Team, Planning and Action Committee, and Bylaw's Task Team. She was also Chairperson for our most recent search for an Executive Director. Jodee has served on the NACCC's Women's Commission, Division for Ministry, Transition Team, Nominating Committee, Annual Meeting & Conference Committee, and Sexual Abuse Task Team. She has served as the Moderator of the NY/NJ Regional Association. Jodee is a retired Preschool Director with a degree in Education and Psychology. Jodee and her husband Fred of forty-six years are the proud parents of daughters Sarah and Julia.

SECRETARY, One-Year Term:

Dr. Kathleen (Kate) O'Dell, First Congregational Church of Anchorage, Alaska [Re-elected this year]

Kate O'Dell has lived in Alaska since 1981 and has been a member of the First Congregational Church of Anchorage (FCC) for 25 years. She has served the congregation in many roles including Moderator, Clerk, chair of various boards and ministries, and as a member of the Host Committee for the 2010 NACCC Annual Meeting and Conference in Anchorage. She was the FCC Administrative Assistant for eight years, retired, but is now in that position again (retitled Church Secretary) since the previous person moved to Kansas when her husband answered the call of a church there. In 2020, Kate was elected for a second term as Clerk of the Pacific Northwest Association of Congregational Christian Churches, and she is FCC's Year-Round Delegate to the PNACCC. This year, Kate began serving on the Host Committee for the 2024 NACCC Annual Meeting and Conference in Spokane, WA. In 2006, Kate retired as Professor Emerita of Teacher Education with the University of Alaska Anchorage College of Education. Her most recent service to that program was as a contributing editor for accreditation self-studies. Kate has served on boards of several nonprofit organizations, frequently as the secretary or chair of a communications committee.

TREASURER, One-Year Term:

Patrick Stewart, First Congregational Church of Marshalltown, Iowa [Re-elected this year]

Patrick served as the volunteer Youth Leader at his member church, LaMoille Congregational Church for nearly 20 years and is currently serving as the Chairperson of the Iowa-Nebraska Association Youth Task Team. Patrick has attended NAPF-HOPE conferences since 2005 and served as either an attendee, CIT, or counselor/small group leader. He has served as the Youth Representative on NACCC Leadership Council and is currently on the Annual Meeting Committee and is serving his fourth year on the NAPF-HOPE Planning Team. In September 1999, Patrick received his Associate's Degree in Accounting with Honors from the American Institute of Business in Des Moines, IA. He has over 20 years of bookkeeping, budgeting, and finance experience. Patrick is currently an Assistant Auditor with the State of Iowa's Auditor's Office-Finance Division in Des Moines, IA. He enjoys listening to music, singing, playing co-ed softball and men's church league basketball, and watching the Iowa State Cyclones, Kansas City Chiefs, and Chicago Cubs. He really enjoys spending time with the church youth group doing fun activities and giving them the same experiences he had as a youth. Patrick looks forward to once again serving as the NACCC Treasurer for the next year.

HISTORIAN, One-Year Term:

Rev. Norm Erlendson, First Congregational (Road) Church of Stonington, Connecticut [Newly elected this year]

Rev. Norm Erlendson has pastored Congregational churches in the NACCC since 1990. He is currently pastor of the historic Road Church, First Congregational, Stonington, CT, founded in 1674. He holds a master's degree in History from the University of Washington, and a Master's Degree in Christian Theology and Ethics from New College, Berkeley, California. He has taught Congregational History and Theology at the Boston Seminar, and also teaches the New Testament and Church History Survey courses in the Lay Ministry Training Program. He and his wife Barbara live in Pawcatuck, CT.

YOUTH REPRESENTATIVE – LEADERSHIP COUNCIL, One-Year Term:

Melinda Jaster, First Congregational Church of Elkader, Iowa [Re-elected this year]

Melinda has been serving on the Christian Ed Committee and as a Youth Leader for almost 20 years at First Congregational Church of Elkader starting in high school. She has also served on the Diaconate Committee for almost 15 years. For the past several years she has been part of the Iowa-Nebraska Youth Committee. Melinda first attended NAPF in 2003. Since 2009 she has attended NAPF-HOPE as either an attendee or counselor. For the past several years she has been videoing and taking pictures at the conference making a video for those attending the conference. Melinda is employed by BassPro/Cabelas at the Distribution Center in Prairie du Chien, WI, working in the inventory department and cross-trained in other areas to help as needed. She enjoys reading, listening to music, spending time with family and friends, and traveling.

VITALITY MINISTRY COUNCIL

New Nominee [Three-Year Term 2023-2026]

Rev. Mark Tanner, Skowhegan Federated Church, Skowhegan, Maine

Mark Tanner has been the pastor of the Skowhegan Federated Church since February 1995. Mark came to Skowhegan following a two-year campus ministry experience at Piedmont College in Georgia. Mark enjoyed serving the young people as well as being present in the life of faculty on campus. Mark has enjoyed 28 years of ministry in Skowhegan. The church serves a wide area in what is called Somerset County. The church is engaged in a broad base of ministries beginning with poverty and heating. Mark believes in making sure food is available to those in need. At Thanksgiving, the church puts together over 275 boxes for distribution to people in the area. Along with food distribution, the church supplies heating oil for families in need in Somerset County. This is all done through donations made possible by church members and people in the community. All of these experiences shared by the church allow God's light to be shared in the community. Mark has served on the United Way board, Somerset Hospice, and as Chaplain to the Fire and Police Departments. Mark also enjoys announcing for the high school football games and coaching baseball for 7th and 8th-grade boys in the Spring. Mark has enjoyed serving the church with his wife Deb who has her own project called "Sweet Dreams". It is a program for families who are in need at Christmas. Her program gives each child a hat, mittens, two toys, a book, and pajamas. This program serves 500 children each Christmas. Mark is also blessed with 5 grown children and 4 grandchildren. Mark looks forward to his involvement in the NACCC.
