

LOVE WORTH SHARING

January 2026

As we start the New Year, Haiti is still living under the grip of gang control and an ineffective government. However, the ministry continues to produce spiritual fruit for the Kingdom of God. The children are still coming to the program location, despite the uncertainty and the dangers involved in traveling; our classrooms are filled to capacity with young people coming to receive both physical and spiritual nutrition. We are blessed to have many dedicated teachers who come prepared each week to teach the children the good news of Jesus Christ. We also have many faithful men and women who come to cook for the children each week, working in cramped environments in hot rooms over charcoal stoves to make sure the children receive a nutritious and filling meal. There are also many unnamed volunteers who come every week to help serve the children the food and help clean up the dishes, just so they can have a hearty meal for themselves; it takes a team that is greater than the sum of its parts to make this ministry fruitful. We thank each one of you who supports this ministry financially and we thank those of you who support this ministry prayerfully. Together we are doing great things for the Kingdom of God in a land far, far away. We know that God promises that His Word will not go out void, but it will produce the results that He intends, so as we continue to move forward we thank you and ask you to continue to care about the souls of the people of Haiti, especially the children whose only hope comes from the Lord Jesus Christ. Please keep Haiti in your prayers this New Year. Blessings to all, Jim & Cindy Owens

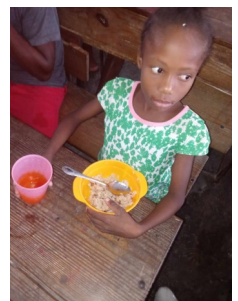

Seeing the food being prepared for the Christmas parties makes me miss being in Haiti even more; I do miss the food, and we have so many wonderful cooks it makes my mouth water just looking at the pictures. This year we were blessed to receive funds from One Great Hour of Sharing from the NACCC to restock the pantries as we head into the New Year. Rolando and Ezechiel went out and bought the much needed supplies, as you will see in the pictures below.

Isaiah 55:11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.*
